Friday Rehearsal

_____ The TCU Chapel Coordinator is the final authority on ceremony specifics as they relate to the chapel.

_____ Each wedding has 1 hour for the Friday rehearsal. View contract for the assigned time frame.

_____ The outside coordinator must allow the RCC Coordinator to go over chapel rules at the beginning of the rehearsal & show the holding rooms at the end of the rehearsal. Therefore, if an outside coordinator is running the ceremony, RCC coordinator has 5 minutes at the beginning, outside coordinator has 40 minutes for the rehearsal, & RCC coordinator has 15 minutes to take everyone to the dressing rooms & show them the quickest way in & out of the building. The outside coordinator must end rehearsal on time. Our time frames are very strict, as Friday rehearsals are held back to back.

Day of Wedding

_____ Each wedding has 3 hours for the day of wedding, as stated in the contract. The time allowed for chapel use is strictly followed. The outside coordinator must respect the time frame of the chapel reservation. They may not arrive early, stay late, nor encourage the wedding party, guests, or vendors to arrive early or stay late. If time frames are not respected, the $250 security deposit is forfeited.

_____ All décor set-up & pre-ceremony pictures must be completed 30 minutes prior to ceremony start time.

_____ All décor & personal belongings must be removed by the end of the time frame. The outside coordinator should assist with clearing the chapel ontime.

_____ If a dispute should arise the day of the wedding, chapel staff is authorized to alert the TCU Police.

_____ Outside coordinator must agree to abide by the Wedding Contract (found online).
